

THE FRIENDS OF THE MURRIETA LIBRARY

Present Author and Party Planner

Maxine Holmgren

When: Tuesday, March 18, 2014, 10 am

Where: Murrieta Library Community Room

8 Town Square (On Adams between Juniper & Kalmia)

Maxine Holmgren is a Christian author, playwright and entrepreneur. She lives in Southern California with her husband, who is an avid golfer and golf instructor. In addition to her book and seventeen mystery tea party plans, she has also written four one act comedies that have been published and are listed in the Samuel French Catalogue of Plays.

She says, "I like to include as much humor as possible, when I write. I think we all need more laughter in our lives."