

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

..... Rita Nastri

It's SPRING! And Spring brings renewal and new life. I know we are still coping with COVID-19, but things seem to be opening, and we can again begin to spread our wings a bit, still practicing COVID guidelines even after vaccination.

I want to again thank all of our members for their enthusiasm and support over the past months. It's been fun to see you "pop up" at our zoom meetings for some exciting and interesting programs. Although the Library is reopening on a very limited schedule, I don't see us returning to the Community Room any time soon. So we will continue to enjoy the Friends monthly meetings from the convenience of our own home for a while longer.

I mentioned renewal earlier. As I write, I'm thinking of our renewed commitment to the Friends of the Murrieta Library and in essence, the Murrieta Library. I will restate today, what I said in Booknotes two years ago, "Your membership in the Friends makes you part of something larger than as an individual. It is only as a group that we can continue to provide the support to our Library on such a grand scale." These words ring true no matter how often they are said.

So again, thank you to all of our Friends and volunteers. And let's not forget our super Front-line Heroes who have kept us safe over the past months.

*****

REMINDER: Our programs due to COVID are still available comfortably right in your own home merely by using the link listed here to get the password for the meeting:

<https://www.murrietalibraryfriends.org>

A short business meeting starts at 10:00 AM, followed by a quick coffee break, followed by the program. Please do join us.

We would also like to welcome back our fabulous Library staff now that the Library is open—see page 4 for more.

BOOK REVIEW

Alex Trebek's.....The Answer Is.....
Reflections on My Life

Many times, he was approached by publishers and writers to do an autobiography or consent to an authorized biography but was never interested until he was diagnosed with stage IV pancreatic cancer. This book is so down to earth and openly honest about a much beloved host of a much watched game show "Jeopardy." You will so enjoy following his path as he tells it himself through the years, both professionally and personally.

Book Gratitude

*Donors' books are piled so high,
Shining like new for everyone to buy.
Mysteries, and thrillers, romances and more,
They are treasures galore to sell at our store.
Your love of reading and your generous donation
Have given us such a wonderful creation:*

- ◆ For the Library, great money;
- ◆ *For readers, delight – like bees
drawn to honey.*

*So thank you, dear donor,
From all of the Friends,
For your generous donation
Of books without end!*

COVID at the Corner Continued

As I have said, COVID at the Corner Bookstore means our Community Of Volunteers Is Dedicated. That has continued to be so true throughout these last eleven months. To me, and to our customers, they are heroes and are definitely essential workers. Because of their dedication and willingness to put themselves "on the line" if you will, we have been making more in the four days per week we are open than in the usual six days. In the Month of March, we averaged $454 per day! The numbers bear witness to what a community service they are providing.

The following (in alphabetical order) are our Dedicated Volunteers who have been covering the shifts: Kelli-Ann Almeida, Kathy Cagle, Judith Ann Edwards, Karin Galina, Susan Hall, Sandra Havens, Ann Hickey, Lois Mayhew, Sheri Richter, Ann Rivera, Mary Lou Rosczyk, Esteban Sardinha, Mary Schiavi, JoAnn Snodgrass, and Jessica Zelon.

"Thanks" does not begin to cover our gratitude, but in our otherwise rich language, it's the one we have! So, from our heart, THANK YOU ONE AND ALL!

Nancy Dixon

Volunteering.....

"The broadest and most meaningful definition of volunteering: Doing more than you have to because you want to, for a cause that is good."

What better cause than our very own Murrieta Public Library and it's amazingly efficient, professional, helpful staff. All for free.

MURRIETA PUBLIC LIBRARY NEWS

Dear Friends,

Happy spring! The Murrieta Public Library reopened with modifications on April 12th. Temperature checks and masks are required and we ask that patrons limit their visits to one hour or less and seating is not yet available. It's been wonderful to see the patrons again and we look forward to expanding our hours and services in the near future. Currently we are open 10 AM to 6 PM Monday through Thursday and 12 to 5 PM Friday and Saturday.

We recently updated the self-checkout stations. The original self-checkouts are still available which brings the total to six and helps with social distancing while checking out materials. Be sure to give our new ones a try on your next visit.

The Summer Reading Challenge will be online again this year. We will host a Book Fair for those who complete the Challenge and they will be able to select a book for their prize.

We are in the process of recruiting a Supervising Librarian for the Youth Services department and we expect to have a new staff member on board by the end of May.

Hope to see you all soon!

Sincerely,
Elise Malkowski
Deputy Director of Library Services
